

CiCe Summer School Research Methods in Citizenship and Identity 9-14 June 2014

University of Warmia and Mazury, Olsztyn, Poland
Organized by the European Centre for Research on Citizenship and Identity

Rationale for the Summer School

The Summer School is designed to support doctoral students researching citizenship and/or identity, including students who previously attended the CiCe Student Research Conference.

Students, will have the opportunity to present and to discuss their research with other students from a range of disciplines; to plan collaboratively a cross disciplinary research project on issues related to citizenship and/or identity; to explore in depth key research issues with experts in the fields of methodology, ethics and data analysis, and to hear of research conducted by leading international experts.

- keynote and plenary sessions
- research training (methods, ethics, data analysis, ...)
- workshops
- presentations of student research
- peer-to-peer collaboration
- dissemination strategies: presentation, networking, publications.

Proposals are invited on topics related to citizenship and identity. For example, economic crisis, employment, distribution of wealth and social justice, immigration, ethnic relationships, diversity, intercultural issues, social exclusion-inclusion, inter-group relationships, historical culture, sustainability, environmental issues, citizenship education, etc. Papers are welcome from different disciplines including education, psychology, economics, history, sociology, political science, philosophy and anthropology.

How to make a proposal or book a place

Proposals MUST be submitted via the Summer School proposal link on the CiCe website:

http://cice.londonmet.ac.uk/conferences/student/student_home.cfm.

We cannot accept proposals that are submitted by any other means.

Bookings MUST be made via the online booking form on the CiCe website:

https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/StudentConf_2014

The fee for the CiCe Summer School is €120.

You must book your place at the Summer School by 9th May 2014.

What to include with your proposal

- 1) A motivation letter stating why you want to attend the Summer School and how you think it will support your research.
- 2) ABSTRACT - 750 words maximum
You must submit an abstract of no more than 750 words. The abstract is used by the Scientific Committee to decide if your paper is relevant and appropriate for selection for the Summer School. The abstract should describe your proposal, telling your audience what it is about. Please write in full sentences not bullet points.

What to include in the abstract:

- a Title of the paper, the author and the affiliation
- the research question(s) of the project
- an Introduction: clear statement of the problem that you are addressing, and a short theoretical background. These should then lead onto the declared project aims and objectives
- the methodology used: participants of the study (if applicable), the basis of the technique that you are using or the procedure that you have adopted in your study
- a Results section (if appropriate): show illustrative examples of the main results of the work
- a Conclusion section.

Once accepted:

Participants are expected to:

- (1) write a paper on their research (3000 words)
- (2) create an oral communication with PowerPoint within a symposium
- (3) talk about their research methodology within methodology sessions in student groups in the Summer School.

BURSARIES

Please note that there are only THREE bursaries available to cover half of the summer school Fee, it does not cover travel or accommodation. Bursaries can only be awarded to individuals registered at universities that are part of the CiCe network who are proposing high quality papers. To apply for a bursary you should submit the following documents to the CiCe office after submitting your proposal on line:

(1) Curriculum Vitae

One page in length, with details of your academic qualifications, previous and current research projects, details of scholarships obtained and held (and the purpose for which they were awarded); details of other seminars and conferences you have attended; details of any published works; other achievements.

(2) Letter of Application

This should explain why you think you deserve to be given a bursary. This may include reference to your financial circumstances (please note that holders of bursaries will be responsible for their own travel and accommodation costs).

(3) Letter of Support

This should be made by your supervisor or another academic referee, who should indicate their support for your application and set out the academic strengths of your studies and proposed paper.

Bursary applications should be sent by email to cice@londonmet.ac.uk or posted to:
