

| | |
|---|------------------------|
| CiCe Network National Co-ordinators Country Reports | 2011-2012 UK |
|---|------------------------|

CiCe National Coordinators report – July 2012

United Kingdom - Pete Woodcock

1. Dissemination of CiCe activities across institutions (links with institutional coordinators for example).

Cathie Holden (Institutional coordinator Uni of Exeter) spent a month at the Université de Strasbourg as a visiting professor and offered lectures/seminars on citizenship related activities.

2. Examples of links with bodies interested in citizenship education such as government departments.

Kirklees young peoples' service (collective bid for ESRC Social Science for event in November) – Young People in Society; Promoting Youth Citizenship.

European Local Democracy week with Kirklees Youth Council – October 19th – Human Rights Makes for More Inclusive Communities.

Andy Mycock Youth Citizenship Commission (set up by the 2007 Governance of Britain white paper) – leading to a publication 'Does Citizenship Education Make Young People Better-Engaged Citizens?' with the PSA.

Andrew Mycock with Paul Thomas presented a workshop on National Citizen Service in March in Huddersfield (providers, students and youth agencies) – 50 attendees.

UWS, School OF Education conference on Youth in Crisis with keynote speakers Scotland's Commissioner for Children and Young People

Keynote speech by Paula Cowan of UWS, on evaluation of current practices, to UNESCO at the Symposium on Teaching Difficult Issues in Primary Schools: the example of the Holocaust

3. Country and regional conferences, seminars and other CiCe related events and activities.

University of the West of Scotland, CPD-2x one day courses entitled ' Teaching the Holocaust: Classroom Issues and Pedagogy to primary and secondary teachers activity in South Ayrshire and Dundee

CiCe's 14th Annual Conference: Creating Citizenship Communities: Local, National and Global

Planning of conference on the politics of history teaching, The University of Huddersfield (in association with the PSA), Winterval 2012

University of the West of England have run three conferences linked with dissemination of the Cambridge primary review and its contribution to the future of primary education in England.

These conferences covered:

Planning creative primary curriculum - June 2011 - key speakers were Robin Alexander and Alison Peacock.

Creating dialogic classrooms - David Reedy October 2011

Language and identity - the views of children from who have English as an Additional Language Feb 2012

Book Launch, Paula Cowan and Henry Maitles (ed) Teaching Controversial Issues in the Classroom that included contributions from many CiCe members

4. Examples of how CiCe materials have been used in course development, teaching and learning or research.

Ian Davies (Institutional coordinator – University of York) continues to be editor of the journal Citizenship Teaching and Learning

Bad news ☹

The PGCE in Citizenship and Humanities at Exeter led by Cathie Holden will close from September due to lack of bursaries