

STRAND 3

Innovation in citizenship and identities education

Theme D: Current themes in identity and citizenship education: Values and Citizenship Education: European Perspectives

CiCe5
Strand 3D
Number of members: 3

Start Date	1 October 2012	End date	30 August 2013
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To produce a Guidance Booklet (online and hard copy, 7000 words) on strategies for teaching and learning Values and Citizenship Education in relation to current European perspectives. Also to consider the challenges and opportunities that this values agenda presents and to illustrate this with examples of practice in teacher education (and related professions) courses from different countries within Europe, providing guidance for course development and identifying specific competencies for future professions who work with children and young people. To produce at least one other learning resource (eg a podcast, slide presentation) in relation to this booklet To establish and maintain, in consultation with LondonMet staff, a Values and Citizenship Education: European Perspectives Special Interest Group forum on the CiCe website or other online platform. To contribute a progress update to the CiCe newsletter To produce and present a poster on the groups activities at the 2013 CiCe conference in Lisbon (you may also wish to submit a paper(s) relating to your work) Please minute all meetings (action points) and submit to CiCe office
Quality Assurance Milestones	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> October 2012: planning meeting at Patras Seminar December 2012: establish SIG June 2013: present progress at conference (poster) July 2013 submit final draft of booklet
Group members	Annette Haaber Ihle was a teacher in the Danish public school system for ten years before starting her research on Islam and Citizenship and the Muslim private school system, both in Denmark and Ghana. She currently teaches a course on “Christianity, ethic and citizenship”, a core subject in Danish teacher training. Dorota Misiejuk has taught at the University in Bialystok (Poland) in the Department of Intercultural Education since 1999. Her research interests focus on problems of identity and minority children and intercultural education and communication. Elizabeth Newman is a former primary school music specialist. Her Doctoral research and publications focus on the culture of primary schools; the experience of newly qualified teachers and primary teacher identity with a particular interest in the experience of career changers and of men training to be primary teachers.
EC member responsible	Henry Maitles
Meetings	(1) The annual CiCe Autumn Seminar meeting (2) The annual CiCe Conference meeting and pre- conference meeting You will also be expected to participate in at least two other virtual working group meetings per year, as arranged by the group.		